SEN Teacher

MPS / UPS + SEN

Full Time

Required 1st September 2025

Cornfield is boys school located in the seaside town of Littlehampton and has 84 students on role, aged between 8 and 16 who have Social, Emotional or Behavioural difficulties.

We are looking to appoint a SEN Teacher with experience in SEMH needs to start in September 2025. The successful applicant will work alongside our friendly and supportive team of professionals who put the students at the heart of what we do.

The successful candidate will be able to demonstrate robustness & resilience as the role can be extremely rewarding but very demanding. It is important to be able to maintain a level of calm and have excellent communication skills with both adults and young people. It is essential to have good organisational skills, the ability to multitask and act as a role model for students.

The ideal applicant will be able to demonstrate excellent classroom practice and have recent experience of working with children with SEN, however experience in Social, Emotional and Communication Difficulties would be advantageous.

This is an excellent opportunity for the successful candidate to work in a good school (OFSTED June 2021) that focuses on supporting SEMH students to become more independent and provide them with skills and experiences that will enable them to be successful in life.

This post would be suitable for experienced and recently qualified practitioners wanting to commit to working with challenging students.

Applications are invited from candidates on either MPS or UPS pay scale and visits to the school are strongly advised and encouraged.

Please see Job Description and Person Specification attached.

Completed application forms should be sent to Tania Palfrey, HR Administrator, at tpalfrey@cornfieldschool.org.uk.

*Cornfield School is fully committed to safeguarding and protecting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and all positions are subject to an Enhanced DBS Check being carried out.
